

Vampire Rock

It's midnight time at twelve o'clock,
the ghosts get ready for the vampire rock.

Chr.

And the teeth are rattling
and the bones are shaking,
they are dancing till the dawn is breaking.
At night, at night, at night in the full moonlight.

The potion's boiling and the pumpkin's grinning,
toads and frogs and mice are singing.

Chr.

Witch and wizard, cat and bat,
and all the ghosts have fun and chat.

Chr.

Time is over, it's one o'clock,
the ghost must finish their vampire rock.
